June 2018 Events at the Blount County Public Library

MARYVILLE, TN (May 30, 2018) We're gearing up for June here at BCPL and we invite you to join us all month long. We start the month out with Mini-Con, the most awesome comic convention in town. Bring your friends, family, and coolest cosplay and join us for a day of fun. Mini-Con also serves as the kickoff for our 2018 Summer Reading Program "Libraries ROCK!" Registration for the program begins May 25 for children and teens and June 1 for adults. Later in the month, we have no shortage of family movies, fun performances from singers and magicians alike, and lectures for adults. Other programs in June will include

- Fun and educational children's events every Saturday, plus regular story hours,
- Teen activities and challenges,
- Adult events and programs,
- Southern Appalachian Studies Series: Birds of Our Mountains, Past and Present
- Art with Watercolors
- Blount County Friends of the Library Book Sale
- Make a Change with Sparky and Rhonda Rucker
- Book Signing with Author Shawn Wichert
- Sergeant York: The Play

And much more! Pick up your copy of the Summer Reading brochure (or the monthly calendars) so that you'll have your own schedule of summer events for June and July. These items are also available on the library website at www.blountlibrary.org We look forward to seeing you at the library!

- Saturday, June 9, 10:30 a.m. until 12:30 p.m., “Sensory Movie Fun: ‘Coco.’” Don’t miss the musical adventure many are calling one of Disney-Pixar’s best-ever movies! Join Miguel and his family on an exciting and heart-warming quest, and you’ll see why “Coco” won the Academy Awards for Best Animated Feature and Best Song, as well as winning the hearts of audiences. Our Sensory Movie Fun approach welcomes little ones (and bigger ones!) with sensory and attention issues, providing low light, a low-stress environment and LEGOs and crafts for busy hands. The film screens in the Sharon Lawson Room.
- Saturday, June 16, 10:30 a.m. until 11:30 a.m., “Make a Change with Sparky and Rhonda Rucker.” How can you make the world a better place? Musicians and activists Sparky and Rhonda Rucker bring their unique and soulful music, along with their new book, “Make a Change” to inspire children and families toward a more just world. This event takes place in the Sharon Lawson Room.
- Saturday, June 23, 10:30 a.m. until 12:30 p.m., “Sensory Movie Fun: ‘Aladdin.’” A plucky thief, a powerful genie with a motor mouth and a princess who is as brave as she is beautiful? That’s the recipe behind one of the most beloved features from Disney’s “Golden Age” of animation. Revisit this musical, magical adventure – and introduce little ones to it – before the live-action film retelling comes out next year. Our Sensory Movie Fun approach welcomes little ones (and bigger ones!) with sensory and attention issues, providing low light, a low-stress environment and LEGOs and crafts for busy hands. The film screens in the Sharon Lawson Room.
- Thursday, June 28, 6:30 p.m. until 8:30 p.m., “Mary Poppins.” The beloved movie musical that taught parents that the best way to get children to take their medicine is with a “spoonful of sugar.” Rated G and starring Julie Andrews and Dick Van Dyke. This classic and tuneful film for all ages screens in Dorothy Herron Room A.
- Saturday, June 30, 10:30 a.m. until 11:30 a.m., “Magician Scott Humston.” Magician Scott Humston never fails to amaze and amuse audiences. - Saturday, July 7, 10:30 a.m. until 12:30 p.m., “Sensory Movie Fun: ‘Kubo and the Two Strings.’” Kubo creates magical tales using only the haunting music of his shamisen, a traditional Japanese instrument, and folded origami animals. But when he draws the attention of a fearsome mythical warlord, he must go on an epic quest, aided by magical friends, his music and his own courage. Our Sensory Movie Fun approach welcomes little ones (and bigger ones!) with sensory and attention issues, providing low light, a low-stress environment and LEGOs and crafts for busy hands. The film screens in the Sharon Lawson Room.
- Monday, July 9, 7:30 p.m. until 8:30 p.m., “Frisbee Fun with a World Champ.” Flips, throws, spins and tricks – you won’t believe all the cool things that World Champion Gary Auerbach, the “Frisbee Guy,” can do! He’ll present his fabulous Frisbee show for all ages in the Sharon Lawson Room.
- Saturday, July 14, 10:30 a.m. until noon, “Touch a Truck with City Street Beat.” Have you ever gotten up close and personal with a wrecker or a police motorcycle? This is your chance to “meet” some of the incredible and powerful vehicles that make our community work. We’ll also have a special outdoor noisemaking party; make music the “City Street Beat” way, with tubs, trash cans and more! “Touch a Truck” takes place on the library’s parking lot and lawn.
- Saturday, July 21, 10:30 a.m. until 12:30 p.m., “Sensory Movie Fun: ‘Mulan.’” When her injured father is called to join the army, Mulan disguises herself as his son and takes his place. Her bravery not only saves the army, but later the empire itself! This classic tale of an unlikely hero gave us some of the best songs and scariest villains in Disney history. Our Sensory Movie Fun approach welcomes little ones (and bigger ones!) with sensory and attention issues, providing low light, a low-stress environment and LEGOs and crafts for busy hands. The film screens in the Sharon Lawson Room.
- Saturday, July 28, 10:30 a.m. until noon, “Musical Instrument Petting Zoo.” We’ll end our summer of music fun with a chance to touch and learn about all kinds of real-life musical instruments and hear how they sound up close. No animals at this petting zoo – just lots of noisy fun. This event takes place in the Sharon Lawson Room.

Elementary Age Activities:

- Tuesdays, 4 p.m. until 5 p.m., “LEGO Club,” for Grades K-5, will take place in the Children’s Library. Kids will complete different-themed and timed LEGO Challenges, as well as have some time for free building. The library will provide the LEGOs, so all you have to bring is your imagination. Get your build on in the Children’s Story Area (in the Children’s Library).
 - NOTE: No LEGO Club in August. Library staff will take the month of August off to regroup after our busy and fun summer, and to let families get adjusted to the new school year. LEGO Club and other regular programming will resume in September.
- Fridays, 4 p.m. until 5 p.m., “STEAMkids,” for Grades K-5. Every week will be a different adventure, from hands-on science experiments to art projects and everything in between.
