July 2017 Events at the Blount County Public Library

MARYVILLE, TN (July 26, 2017) With the warm days of July and August come the annual Hot Summer Nights Concert Series and Shakespeare play. Hometown guy, Cruz Contreras, front man for The Black Lillies, will be the headliner to kick off for this year’s concert series, followed by a nice variety of music genres and musicians. “Two Gentlemen of Verona” is the Shakespeare comedy to be performed by the Tennessee Stage Company. All performances are indoors, so you can watch the events in air conditioned coolness. And this year’s “Build a Better World” summer reading program will continue through July, continuing a challenging and interesting series of events, reading activities and challenges, and programs – for all ages: children, teens and adults!

- Patti Callahan Henry will be the second NY Times Best-Selling author to visit the library in a span of two months. She’ll be talking about her new-release book, “The Bookshop at Water’s End.”
- A new book club, “Appalachian Reads,” will commence on July 15, from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m. at the library.
- “Homeowners’ Insurance” will be the Fiscal Fitness topic for July.
- “Mountain Dulcimers” by Mike Clemmer, local craftsman and musician, will continue the Appalachian Studies Series of programs.
- Multiple exciting events continue for teens and children.
- And – Looking ahead to a Total Solar Eclipse party at the library on Monday, August 21! Plan to attend to safely view and celebrate this unique event!

What better way to spend part of your summer days than “Helping Build a Better World!” We look forward to seeing you at the library!

MUSIC / CONCERTS: Phone (865) 982-0981 or (865) 273-1428

- Thursdays in August, 7 p.m., “Hot Summer Nights Concert Series” at the library! Concerts will be inside the library in air conditioning and are sponsored by the Blount County Friends of the Library.
 - August 3: Cruz Contreras, Americana acoustic (and front man for the Black

- Lillies), will kick off this season's series. Co-founding Robinella and the CC Stringband here in Maryville some years ago, he has now gone on to create an Americana band of talent that travels and performs internationally while drawing its songs from roots of blues, folk, soul and country.
- August 10: The Ebbert Family (Summar, Bridget & Tyler) will perform bluegrass, mountain, Celtic, Civil War, gospel and classical on string instruments. Students of premier violinist and musician, Conny Ottway, this young family of siblings plays multiple instruments. Playing the violin for 8 years, Summar is followed closely by her sister Bridget who has been playing for 5. Tyler picked up the guitar a year ago and has been playing with his sisters ever since. Recently, all three competed in the 2017 Tennessee State Fiddle Championship where Bridget became the Tennessee Pee Wee Fiddle Champion.
 - August 17: Sisters of the Silver Sage will play western and cowboy music with a blended harmony reminiscent of the Old West and The Sons of the Pioneers. Three sisters, Rhonda, Janet and Donna formed the original group which now includes two of the sisters and a niece. The group has won awards in Western music.
 - August 24: Knoxville Jazz Youth Orchestra Small Ensemble will perform under the direction of Tom Lundberg. This small group plays with the larger Knoxville Jazz Youth Orchestra.
 - August 31: An Evening of Broadway & Operetta with Knoxville Opera Company, conducted by Maestro Brian Salesky. This Hot Summer Nights finale will feature a concert of Broadway and Operetta classics presented by Knoxville Opera: exciting selections from West Side Story, Porgy and Bess, and The Music Man, along with gorgeous melodies from German and American operettas. As kick-off to Knoxville Opera's 40th anniversary season, Maestro Brian Salesky, Executive Director and Conductor of Knoxville Opera, will host the library concert and accompany two outstanding young artists: soprano Jacquie Brecheen, and tenor Darius Thomas.

NEW EVENTS: Phone (865) 982-0981 or (865) 273-1428 (See recurring events below the new events)

- Tuesday, July 4, “Library Closed in Honor of Independence Day.”
- Through July 31: “2017 Summer Reading Program: Build a Better World.” Throughout the summer, in addition to reading based on “Build a Better World” themes, there will be weekly events and activities for all ages, emphasizing the theme. Dates for the three age groups are
 - Children: Through Saturday, July 29
 - Teens: Through Saturday, July 29
 - Adults: Through Monday, July 31
 Readers of all ages will explore, through books, activities and events, how to build a better world. The 2017 Summer Reading Program is open to all ages, preschool through adult, with programs, prize drawings, story times, a reading club and more. All programs are free of charge. Look for the brochure at the library and more publicity describing events and activities.
- Through July 31, Tic-Tac-Toe returns with an all new set of goals for this year's summer reading. 1) Pick up Tic-Tac-Toe card at the Circulation desk. You may enter multiple times. 2) Read, listen or watch three items per Tic-Tac-Toe card and fill in the card. 3) Validate the card at the Circulation Desk to enter weekly and Grand Prize drawings. 4) Weekly prizes will be awarded on Friday afternoons. The Grand Prize will be awarded before the Shakespeare play on Monday, July 31, at 6:15 p.m.

- Through Friday, July 28, “The Inaugural #BCPLHistoryHunt.” The inaugural #BCPLHistoryHunt is a scavenger hunt designed to highlight some of the most historically important structures and locations in Maryville. The hunt will officially start on June 1 & run for 8 weeks. On Thursdays, June 1 through July 20, a clue will be announced via Facebook (www.facebook.com/BlountCountyPublicLibrary) for the week’s history hunt. Once participants find a location, they will have until noon on Friday of the following week for a “selfie” to be posted to participant’s INSTAGRAM account (www.instagram.com). All selfies must be taken in front of the designated location and tagged #BCPLHistoryHunt. Participants under age 18 who want a “selfie” used on BCPL social media should go to the library with a parent to sign a photo release form. Don’t spoil the fun! Once you find it, do NOT post the name of the mystery building/location! Weekly Drawing: The name of the weekly winner will be drawn from correct submissions and announced on Friday afternoons, along with the name of the mystery building/location. Monthly Drawing: All patrons who participate in finding the clues for that month will be entered into the monthly drawing to be held at the end of the month, on Friday, June 30 and July 28, in addition to the weekly drawings. Selfies for monthly drawings are cumulative, so the more you have, the greater the chances of winning the monthly prize. For more information go the Reference Department or call 865-982-0981, ext. 4, or 865-273-1428.
- Monday, July 10, 6:30 p.m., “Fiscal Fitness: Homeowner’s Insurance” will be presented by Charlotte Chance, Agency Owner, Farmers Insurance. Buying a home is likely the largest investment most of us will make in our lifetime. So, how do we protect this large and important investment? How do we make sure we are protected in the event of an accident or a natural disaster? Homeowners Insurance not only protects your investment, but it is also often required by the lender of your mortgage. Do you understand the basic parts of homeowner’s insurance, what it covers, how to best use it when needed and how important it is to your lender? Charlotte Chance has 20 years of experience in the financial and insurance industry. This program will be in Dorothy Herron Room A.
- Tuesday July 11, 6:30 p.m., “Family/Team LEGO Building Challenge.” Take part in building replicas of famous and important historical buildings! Open to teams and families of all ages. This event will be held in Dorothy Herron Room A.
- Saturday, July 15, 10:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. (3rd Saturday of every other month) “Appalachian Reads.” The new book group will read works of Southern Appalachian authors. Wendell Berry’s Jayber Crow will be the topic of the inaugural meeting, facilitated by Doug Floyd. Sponsored by Friends of the Library, meetings will be held the third Saturday of every other month in Dorothy Herron Room A.
- Monday, July 17, 7 p.m., “Patti Callahan Henry, New York Times Best-selling author” will be here to talk about her new book The Bookshop at Water’s End. This newly-released book is a disentanglement of issues experienced by multiple characters in the book, all of whom retreat to a small beach town community to try to sort out some tragic and/or difficult life, family and career challenges. Callahan Henry has been nominated multiple times for the Southern Independent Booksellers Alliance (SIBA) Book Award for Fiction. She is a frequent speaker at luncheons, book clubs and women’s groups. Sponsored by the Blount County Friends of the Library and Southland Books, this event will be held in the Sharon Lawson Room.
- Monday, July 17, 7 p.m., “Zentangle Workshop” with Katie Kinney and Fine Arts Blount. An art that helps increase focus and helps the mind to relax after a long day. This event will be in Dorothy Herron Room A.

- Monday, July 24, 7 p.m., "Southern Appalachian Studies Series: Mountain Dulcimers with Mike Clemmer." Clemmer will discuss the history of mountain dulcimers as well as the craft of creating and playing them. The presentation will be in the Sharon Lawson Room of the library.
- Saturday, July 29, 12:15 p.m., "Fantastic Beasts." The Blount County Animal Center will bring animals to the library for patrons to begin the adoption process.
- Monday, July 31, 6:15 p.m., "Build a Better World! Summer Reading Program Grand Prize Drawing." Don't miss the drawing for the Adult Summer Reading Program grand prize for a $200 Amazon gift card. Last chance to turn your entry in will be 5 p.m.
- Monday, July 31, 6:30 p.m. to 9 p.m., "Shakespeare's Two Gentlemen of Verona." Presented by professional actors with the Tennessee Stage Company under the direction of Tom Parkhill, this is a live stage comedy of love, deceit, flirtation, friendship and mistaken identity, with plenty of puns and slapstick. This play by William Shakespeare, appropriate for the entire family, and sponsored by the Friends of the Library, will be presented in the Main Gallery of the Reading Rotunda.
- Thursdays in August, 7 p.m., "Hot Summer Nights Concert Series" at the library! Concerts will be inside the library in air conditioning and are sponsored by the Blount County Friends of the Library.
 - August 3: Cruz Contreras, Americana acoustic (and front man for the Black Lillies), will kick off this season's series. TEEN PROGRAMS – Phone (865) 273-1414:

Teen New Events: (See recurring events below the New Events)

- Tuesday, July 4, “Library Closed in Honor of Independence Day.”
- Through Saturday, July 29: Sign-ups for the Teen’s Summer Reading Challenge! This summer, teens will do more than challenge themselves to read and earn points toward prizes – though you can still do that! Sign up for the Summer Reading Challenge and get your Challenge Journal at the Reference desk (near Teen Central). The Challenge Journal will help you track points toward weekly drawings and, at summer’s end, a grand prize drawing for a Kindle Fire. Sign up at the Reference Desk.
- Through Saturday, July 29: Conquest of Libraria Begins! When you sign up for the Summer Reading Challenge, you’ll also be assigned to one of five “Houses,” and all Challenge points you earn will also accumulate toward House totals. Each week, librarians will tally points to see which House is on its way to conquering the mysterious realm of Libraria! Earn points for reading, writing, attending library events, doing community service and more. Weekly House Meeting Hangouts, starting in June, will let teens plan strategies with your House members, or just meet face-to-face with your fellow Libraria contenders and enjoy social time, games and snacks. See Youth Services or Reference librarians for complete rules for the Conquest. Check out the map posted each week in the library and on social media to see how the Conquest is going. And remember: The honor of your House is at stake!
- Saturdays, July 1, 8, 15 and 22, 2 p.m., “Conquest of Libraria” House Meeting Hangouts. This is your chance to talk strategy with your fellow House members, including declaring battles and alliances – or just hang out and meet face-to-face. If the hangout doesn't coincide with another event (such as “Gaming @ Your Library,” July 8 or “Video Game Trivia,” July 22), the gathering will take place in Teen Central.

- Through Friday, July 28, “The Inaugural #BCPLHistoryHunt.” The inaugural #BCPLHistoryHunt is a scavenger hunt designed to highlight some of the most historically important structures and locations in Maryville. The hunt will officially start on June 1 & run for 8 weeks. On Thursdays, June 1 through July 20, a clue will be announced via Facebook (www.facebook.com/BlountCountyPublicLibrary) for the week's history hunt. Once participants find a location, they will have until noon on Friday of the following week for a “selfie” to be posted to participant's INSTAGRAM account (www.instagram.com). All selfies must be taken in front of the designated location and tagged #BCPLHistoryHunt. Participants under age 18 who want a “selfie” used on BCPL social media should go to the library with a parent to sign a photo release form. Don't spoil the fun! Once you find it, do NOT post the name of the mystery building/location! Weekly Drawing: The name of the weekly winner will be drawn from correct submissions and announced on Friday afternoons, along with the name of the mystery building/location. Monthly Drawing: All patrons who participate in finding the clues for that month will be entered into the monthly drawing to be held at the end of the month, on Friday, June 30 and July 28, in addition to the weekly drawings. Selfies for monthly drawings are cumulative, so the more you have, the greater the chances of winning the monthly prize.
- Saturday, July 8, 2 p.m., “#Adulting.” Adulthood is hard. But the library is here to help! Experts in personal finance, nutrition, time management and stress relief will be on hand to help teens navigate the tough business of being human adults in today's world. And don't miss the chance to play on a life-size board game. This event takes place in the Sharon Lawson Room.
- Tuesday July 11, 6:30 p.m., “Family/Team LEGO Building Challenge.” Take part in building replicas of famous and important historical buildings! Open to teams and families of all ages. This event will be held in Dorothy Herron Room A.
- Saturday, July 22, 2 p.m., “Video Game Trivia”: Teens test your wits and win gaming cred! Our trivia master will challenge you with questions about all kinds of video games, across platforms. And remember what Chief says in “Animal Crossing”: “Don't wish it were easier; wish you were better.” Video Game Trivia takes place in Dorothy Herron Room A.
- Saturday, July 29, 12:15 p.m., “Fantastic Beasts.” The Blount County Animal Center will bring their animals to the library for patrons to begin the adoption process.
- Saturday, July 29, 2 p.m., “Yule Ball.” You've heard of Christmas in July? The finale of our Summer Reading program for teens is a Harry Potter-style Yule Ball. Wear your best and sparkliest winter finery, or dress as a favorite Harry Potter character. Dance the afternoon away and enjoy Harry Potter-themed refreshments. The winning house of the Conquest of Libraria will be announced as well as the individual teen winner of the Summer Reading Program's grand prize (a Kindle Fire). This event will be in the Sharon Lawson Room.
- Monday, July 31, 6:30 p.m. to 9 p.m., “Shakespeare's Two Gentlemen of Verona.” Presented by professional actors with the Tennessee Stage Company under the direction of Tom Parkhill, this is a live stage comedy of love, deceit, flirtation, friendship and mistaken identity, with plenty of puns and slapstick. This play by William Shakespeare, appropriate for the entire family, and sponsored by the Friends of the Library, will be presented in the Main Gallery of the Reading Rotunda.
- Monday, August 21, 1 to 4 p.m., “Total Solar Eclipse Safe Viewing & Activities.” To celebrate this rare event of a total solar eclipse, the library is hosting a safe viewing of the solar eclipse (with CE ISO certified viewing glasses) and the low-tech hole camera as well as a variety of informational activities as well as children's crafts related to the eclipse. You're invited to the library's main gallery, children's library – and the solar eclipse viewing on the pedestrian bridge outside the library for this unique experience, sponsored by the Blount County Friends of the Library.

Teen Recurring Events – Phone (865) 273-1414:

- Saturdays, 10 a.m. until 3 p.m., “Play Chess at the Library.” All Ages are invited to play chess (or learn how to play) most Saturdays in the Teen Central Area of the library. On one Saturday of every month, there will be a rated tournament at the Blount County Public Library.
- Thursdays, 1 p.m. until 4 p.m., “Play Chess at the Library.” All Ages are invited to play chess (or learn how to play) most Thursdays in the Teen Central area of the library.
- Once per month: “Sanctioned Chess Tournament,” is held at the library in the Teen Central Area.
- Saturdays, 3 p.m. until 5 p.m., “Blount County Nerd Group.” Teens can learn the basic principles of computer programming, also known as coding. By participating in the Blount County Nerd Group, students seventh grade and up can learn coding skills, such as making simple games, developing professional websites and creating mobile apps. Experienced web developers, Kaleb Davenport and Garrett Smith are students at local high schools who have worked very hard to learn about many different technologies and are excited to share their expertise with local teens. In the constantly changing job market, coding is a huge advantage for students and job seekers. Participating students are encouraged to bring their own devices, including a laptop. However, students who do not have adequate technology will be provided a laptop by the library. Power outlets and internet are available. The Nerd Group meets in the Board Room.
- Saturdays, July 1, 8, 15 and 22, 2 p.m., “Conquest of Libraria” House Meeting Hangouts. This is your chance to talk strategy with your fellow House members, including declaring battles and alliances – or just hang out and meet face-to-face. If the hangout doesn't coincide with another event (such as “Gaming @ Your Library,” July 8 or “Video Game Trivia,” July 22), the gathering will take place in Teen Central.
- Saturdays, July 8, 2 p.m. until 4 p.m. (2nd Saturday of each month), “Gaming @ Your Library.” Games of all kinds! Board games, Wii Sports, Super Smash Bros., MarioKart, Yu-Gi-Oh! or bring your own Wii or tabletop game to share. Bring friends! This is also your chance to hang out and meet up with your “Conquest of Libraria” Houses and talk strategy. Gaming will be in Dorothy Herron Room A.
- Tuesdays, 5:30 p.m. until 8:30 pm., “Dungeons & Dragons.” All ages (12 and up) and skill levels can join in the fun of this tabletop role-playing game by learning about D&D and sharing your love of fantasy gaming! Coordinated by Brandon Clackum, a Maryville City Schools teacher, this group meets in the Reading Rotunda at the end of the Main Gallery (but may move to another area, depending on other events).
